CLOTHING CHECKLIST

NON-FISHING ATTIRE: Linehan Outfitting Company lodge and cabin settings are very casual and no special attire is necessary. Blue jeans, khakis, shorts, casual shirts, fishing shirts are all common.

OUTERGARMENTS

Waterproof rain jacket, preferable lightweight and packable. Always carry this with you!
Fishing specific Gortex or similar products are best.
Layer for changing weather conditions. We recommend quick-drying synthetic materials such as polyester, nylon, etc. Even though you may be visiting in summer it's always a good idea to include a good fleece jacket or similar wind-blocking product.
Long-sleeved, quick drying fishing shirts, pants and shorts.
Gloves and stocking cap just in case.

UNDERGARMENTS

Long underwear, top and bottom, at least one pair. Mid-weight, quick drying is most versatile.
For cold weather and water, use heavy weight underwear or fleece garments under breathable waders.

FOOTWEAR

Sandals for float fishing.

Neoprene booties or socks.

Non-cotton socks. Smart wool or synthetic fleece is best.

FLY FISHING CHECKLIST

TRAVEL TIPS

The three major airports servicing northwest Montana are Spokane, Washington, Kalispell, Montana, and Missoula, Montana. Below you'll find directions and driving time to our locations.

Keep in mind that our log cabins are located in Yaak, Montana, our Kootenai River House is located in Libby, Montana and our Anglers Hut is located in Libby, Montana. However, our mailing address is Troy, Montana but we have no business location in Troy, Montana.

If you are heading to our Yaak log cabins, be certain to get your groceries before you head for the Yaak. That means either Bonners Ferry, Idaho, Troy or Libby, Montana depending on which direction you're traveling.
